The information in the table presents the expected costs as a range of minimum and maximum values in absolute amount and percentage. In the calculation, the Bank has used, when it is possible, actual expenses that are representative of the expected costs and fees. In the absence of information on actual costs and charges in the past, the Bank calculates the preliminary costs based on its experience and reasonable estimates.

All costs are based on the amount of the investment, referred above, and the specified type of financial asset. The amount of the costs may vary depending on the actual amount invested, the holding period of time, and the specific situation and it is possible that incurred costs may differ from those that have been shown.

Upon request by a client, the Bank will provide preliminary indicative costs based on the parameters of the particular deal, taking into account fees in accordance with the Tariff or to a signed bilateral agreement with the customer.

The commissions are charged in the respective currency in accordance with the Tariff or to a signed bilateral agreement with the client regarding the fees and commissions of the Bank. In case the client does not maintain an account in the respective currency, it is possible that he / she will bear currency exchange differences on the basis of the currency conversion in accordance with the daily exchange rate bulletin of the Bank.

¹ The Bank applies a commission fee for each deal in accordance with the Tariff or signed bilateral agreement with the client, and the commission cannot be below the minimum amount declared in them;
