The information in the table presents the expected costs as a range of minimum and maximum values in absolute amount and percentage. In the calculation, the Bank has used, when it is possible, actual expenses that are representative of the expected costs and fees. In the absence of information on actual costs and charges in the past, the Bank calculates the preliminary costs based on its experience and reasonable estimates.

All costs are based on the amount of the investment, referred above, and the specified type of financial asset. The amount of the costs may vary depending on the actual amount invested, the holding period of time, and the specific situation and it is possible that incurred costs may differ from those that have been shown.

Upon request by a client, the Bank will provide preliminary indicative costs based on the parameters of the particular deal, taking into account fees in accordance with the *Tariff*¹ or to a signed bilateral agreement with the customer.

The commissions are charged in the respective currency in accordance with the Tariff. In case the client does not maintain an account in the respective currency, it is possible that he / she will bear currency exchange differences on the basis of the currency conversion in accordance with the daily exchange rate bulletin of the Bank.

¹ The costs associated with the financial instrument are announced by the product manufacturer (Raiffeisen Capital Management) and the Bank will provide them separately for each specific product. The stated costs of the financial instrument are included in the price of the product and do not require an additional monetary payment from the customer.
